

PRIVACY POLICY

Effective date: 22nd March 2017

This privacy policy (the "Policy") covers the following mobile applications: Online Taxi Driver, Online Taxi Pickup, Cheap Cabs Auckland Pickup, Auckland Taxi Service, Budget Taxis Auckland and Discount Taxis Pickup (the "Applications"). It also covers information supplied to www.onlinetaxis.co.nz, www.m5.co.nz and www.symtech.nz (the "Sites").

Symtech Ltd. ("Company") is committed to protecting the personal information that you disclose to Company via our mobile applications. Accordingly, this Policy sets forth Company's privacy practices and the possible uses of the information that it gathers through the Site and the Applications (collectively, the "Symtech Services"). If you want to talk to us about this policy or any concerns or queries you have about the use of your personal information, please email us at info@symtech.nz. This policy is provided for your information and doesn't limit or exclude your rights under the Privacy Act 1993.

Collection of Information

In connection with your use of the Symtech Services, Company may request and/or collect certain personal information from you, which may include your first and last name, home address, shipping address, phone number, email address, geographic location, geospositional data and credit or debit card number ("Your Information"). By entering Your Information via the Symtech Services or otherwise providing Your Information to Company, you consent to Company's use of Your Information for purposes discussed herein, as well as for purposes related to the Symtech Services.

Company will not sell, share, or rent Your Information to others in ways different from those disclosed in this Policy. Company does not intend to collect information from children under 13 years of age. If Company discovers that it has inadvertently collected information from a child under 13 years of age, Company will promptly take all reasonable measures to delete that data from its systems.

Company may also collect information through the use of common information-gathering tools such as web beacons, cookies, and server logging, including, but not limited to, the date and time of your visit, your IP address, your web browser type, the pages you visit, and the website you came from. The Site may use a technology called a "cookie." When you revisit the Site, it will detect whether you have one of the cookies on your computer. The cookies help provide additional functionality to the Site and help Company analyse Site usage more accurately. For instance, the Site may set a cookie on your browser that keeps you from needing to remember and then enter a password more than once during a visit to the Site.

Use of Information

Company will use Your Information in order to contact you, provide the Symtech Services and/or send you promotional and/or other marketing information about products, services and offerings. You may opt-out of receiving promotional and/or other marketing materials by contacting info@symtech.nz.

Company will use also Your Information to respond to requests you may make of Company. Company may also refer to Your Information to better understand your needs and how Company can improve the Symtech Services.

Information Sharing

Company may share portions of Your Information, such as your phone number, address, geographic location and geospositional data, with taxi providers that will provide you with taxi transportation services that you request through the Symtech Services. Company makes no representation or warranty as to the security or privacy of Your Information after it has been disclosed to a taxi provider.

PRIVACY POLICY

Company may also share Your Information with agents, contractors or partners in connection with services that these individuals or entities perform for, or with, Company. These agents, contractors or partners are restricted from using this data in any way other than to provide services for Company. Company may, for example, provide Your Information to agents, contractors or partners for hosting Company's databases, for data processing services, to process payments, or to send you promotional materials.

Company reserves the right to share Your Information in response to duly authorized information requests of governmental authorities or where required by law. Company may also disclose Your Information if necessary for fraud protection and credit risk reduction purposes, or in the good-faith belief that such action is necessary to protect and defend the rights or property of Company or the users of the Symtech Services or to act under urgent circumstances to protect the safety of Company or its employees or a member of the public.

Company may also provide Your Information to a third party in connection with the sale, assignment, or other transfer of the business of Company to which the information relates, in which case Company will require any such buyer to agree to treat Your Information in accordance with this Policy.

Company may share aggregated demographic information with third party sponsors and advertisers. This aggregated demographic information is not linked to any personal information that can identify any individual person.

Security

Company employs commercially reasonable measures to protect Your Information. For example, areas of this Site that collect Your Information encrypt transfers to us through secure socket layer encryption (SSL). Unfortunately, no safeguards or processes can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. Thus, we cannot ensure or warrant the security of any of Your Information. You provide Your Information at your own risk.

Effective Date/Notification of Changes

Please note that Company may update this Policy from time to time, and you should check this page periodically for changes. If changes are made, Company will notify users by stating the date the Privacy Policy was last modified. This Policy was last modified on 22/03/2017.

Updating Your Information

If you ever wish to access Your Information, or to have Your Information deleted, updated, changed or modified, you may do so by contacting Company by emailing info@symtech.nz.

Dedicated to securing your private information.
